

PAT Testing Summary

The Failed Appliances listed below are considered to be unsafe for use and have been made non-operational by having their fuse removed. The nominated Responsible Person on site, being the Duty Holder, should have these appliances repaired or disposed of without delay. Please consider the environment when disposing of appliances along with your responsibilities under the WEEE Regulations.

Customer (Company Name):
Site Address:	Failure Code
	1 Damaged flex
	2 Damaged casing
	3 Exposed live parts
	4 Exposed moving parts
	5 Missing blade guard
	6 Failed Earth Continuity Test
	7 Failed Insulation Resistance Test
	8 Failed Earth Leakage Test
	9 Other - Please specify
Contact Name (Duty Holder):

Appliance Number	Appliance Description	Location	Failure Code	Repair or Recycle?		Notes

The points below are of a non-compliance nature, but are not considered to be failures, or are outside the scope of this inspection e.g. part of the fixed installation etc	PAT Test Summary		Engineer Details
	Number of Appliances Inspected and/or Tested	Number of Failed Appliances	Name:
			Signature:
	Number of Repairs	Number of Plugs Fitted	Date:
			Site Contact / Responsible Person
	Microwave Oven Emissions Tests (Optional)	Number of Fuses Changed	Name:
		Signature:
		Date:		